

What is Move On When Ready? The Move On When Ready (MOWR) program allows eligible high school or home student students at the high school level to take college coursework at no cost. These students earn postsecondary credit hours and simultaneously meet their high school graduation or Home Study diploma completion requirements.

The Brenau University schedule may be viewed via CampusWEB. There is an option on that site to log in as a guest for non-Brenau students.

Students Applying for Dual Credit Enrollment at Brenau University

High school students in their junior or senior year may, with the approval of their high school counselor, enroll in a combined number of high school and college courses per semester in the Move on When Ready (MOWR) program.

Public school and home school juniors or seniors who wish to enroll concurrently at Brenau University should submit the following materials:

1. Brenau University Dual Enrollment Application Form (completed online via the Brenau web site). <https://www.brenau.edu/apply/>
2. MOWR Student Participation Agreement. This should be completed and submitted to the students high school or home study program for each school term (semester or quarter) for which the student participates in the MOWR Program as follows:
 - a) Students who attend a public or private eligible high school must complete the online MOWR Application at georgiafutures.org.
 - b) Students who attend a Home Study program must complete the paper MOWR application available at georgiafutures.org. Do not complete the paper MOWR form if you are not a home schooled student.
3. There is no application fee for MOWR applicants
4. Students must be at least 16 years old.
5. Students must have a minimum of junior status.
6. Official high school transcript (must have at least a 3.0 GPA)
7. Students must place out of remedial English via one of the following methods: 1) Minimum SAT reading/writing and math scores of 540. 2) ACT reading and math scores of 20. 3) English Accuplacer with minimum scores of 68 & 74 respectively. Contact the Brenau Humanities Dept. for Accuplacer info at (770) 534-6179

Note:

- All high school students, whether MOWR participants or not, must meet the above admission requirements in order to take any coursework at Brenau University.
- Students may enroll in MOWR for three semesters per year: fall, spring, and summer.
- Students may enroll in up to 12 hours in a semester.
- Online or hybrid courses are not permitted
- Courses not on the course listing must be paid for by the student, out of pocket, at current day program tuition level.
- Hours are NOT counted toward HOPE Scholarship attempted hours limits.
- Tuition and fees are paid by the State directly to the University.
- Books are provided by the University for all approved MOWR courses through Brenau bookstore rental. Books must be returned to the university bookstore. Books not returned will be paid for by the student or the student's official transcripts may be held.
- For more information, please contact Admissions at 770-534-6100. Questions about registration (after admission) can be directed to the Registrar's Office at 770-534-6115.