As many of you are aware, BULLI launched its silver anniversary lecture series this year in honor of our 25th anniversary. Members and community guests alike have been generous in their praise for the speakers and interest in the topics discussed. One of our own members, Wylie Bradley, delivered the most recent lecture in the series. Those present were the beneficiaries of Wylie’s professional expertise as he discussed the architecture and construction of the Notre Dame Cathedral.

When Wylie began the discussion by mentioning that the Gothic style Notre Dame Cathedral was built between the years 1163 and 1345, a span of 182 years and 10 generations, it reminded me of a theme addressed in a book I once used to foster dialogue among undergraduate students. Bill Shore, an early pioneer in the field of social entrepreneurship, penned an interesting read titled The Cathedral Within: Transforming Your Life by Giving Something Back. At 18 and 19 years old, many students are driven by passion and a sense of idealism for a cause in which they believe. The Cathedral Within made for an excellent segue into teaching about leading change.

Bill vividly described ways in which social entrepreneurs tapped into resources to improve public life. He likened this new brand of visionary entrepreneur, who wants to make the most of life and do something that counts, to “cathedral builders of an earlier time, who combined imagination, invention and faith to build something both magnificent and lasting.” Guided by a vision, generations of trade workers and common laborers worked in community to build a magnificent structure. And, along the way, each generation had to adapt to the resources and challenges of the time while remaining true to the original mission and transformational vision.

Brenau University Learning & Leisure Institute
Welcome to BULLI

Over 25 years ago, a group of Hall County residents gathered in the Wilson Room of the John W. Jacobs Jr. Building to talk about the idea of a lifelong learning program at Brenau. The group included local visionaries and business leaders, lifelong Gainesville residents and individuals who were new to the area.

Some of the attendees had visited lifelong learning programs in other places. Others had attended Elderhostel programs throughout the country and had experienced firsthand the benefits of lifelong learning. All of them, however, were dedicated to the idea of creating a unique opportunity for learning at Brenau University.

From their dedication, BULLI was born.

We Invite You To Become a Part of the BULLI Family.

Special Interest Groups

BULLI also has special interest groups that make the lifelong learning experience richer. BULLI members can choose from:

- BULLI Hiking Club
  Members hike throughout Northeast Georgia. Each hike is graded for difficulty and most outings end up with the hikers enjoying lunch together. To join the group, email Spencer Dreischarf at jsdreischarf@charter.net.

- BULLI Bards
  The Bards is a poetry group that meets regularly so that members can read and share poetry and hone their poetry skills. If you are interested, call Bill Early at 678.450.2867.

- Dinner Together
  Would you like to enjoy dinner, Dutch treat, in the company of BULLI friends? This dining-out group meets on the third Thursday of each month at restaurants in the area. Members sign up to serve as host for the month of their choice. Information is emailed to all membership via E-Bits.

- BULLI Reads
  Our book club members gather to discuss their favorite fiction and nonfiction books at 4:30 p.m. on the second Tuesday of every month, except December and July, in room 115 of Brenau’s Trustee Library. Our members volunteer to be discussion group leaders. BULLI members are invited to share in conversations about books and to enjoy the fellowship of other reading enthusiasts. For details, contact Virginia Hale at halev@earthlink.net.

- BULLI Art Group
  For those of you into creating art or those of you who would like to hone your skills, the BULLI Art Group meets on the first Friday of the month at various locations. For more information, call Jill Haack at 770.530.5304.

So what are you waiting for? Join BULLI Today!

What is BULLI?

BULLI COURSES | SPRING TERM
MARCH 23 – MAY 1, 2020

BULLI courses are noncredit, have no exams and no prerequisites. You may take as many six-week courses as you wish for $40 per course. Shorter courses are priced based on course length. Instructors include university professors, community experts and qualified BULLI members who enjoy sharing their knowledge and skills with others. Courses are held at various locations on the Brenau campus and at Braselton town facilities.

For more information, call 770.531.3175 or visit www.brenau.edu/lifetimestudy build endurance, flexibility, balance, cardiovascular and muscular strength, and agility. The course will help with short and long-term goals and how to plan a fit future. Learn how to feel better now and have fun doing it.

Angie Roberts, a familiar BULLI instructor, uses a realistic and practical approach to exercise. She helps you develop a personal program to improve your fitness level. Angie has a degree from North Georgia College and State University in physical education with an emphasis in wellness/fitness. She is a personal trainer at her home in Gainesville and also teaches aerobics classes to active, older adults.

THE CHANGING FACE OF HALL COUNTY
Six sessions – Cost $40
2-3:20 p.m.
We will enjoy hearing from leaders in our community as they explain how our area is adapting, growing, reflecting and improving in today’s fast-paced, changing environment. Each week we will host a different speaker representing Transportation, the Greater Hall Chamber of Commerce, Hall County’s Planning and Development Department, the Hispanic community, Chattahoochee Riverkeeper, the Lake Lanier Association and the Mayor’s Office. Our guests will bring insights from their areas of expertise to help us better understand and appreciate the inevitable growth we experience around us.

Facilitated by BULLI member Virginia Hale.

FITNESS, BALANCE AND WELLNESS: A LIFETIME APPROACH TO FITNESS
Six sessions – Cost $40
12:30-1:50 p.m.
This course will feature sessions led by an eye surgeon; ear, nose and throat doctor; a psychiatrist; a heart and vascular expert; an orthopedic doctor; and a general/internal practitioner. Each expert will explain how to stay healthy as we grow, take the best care of our bodies and live fully.

Dr. Bill Coates, BULLI education and membership coordinator, will host this class. Leaders include Drs. Michael Callahan, Roy Smith, Jim Butts, Lori LeBow and Ryan Fogg.

ANSWERING ADDICTIONS: INSIGHTS AND SOLUTIONS
Six sessions – Cost $40
6-7:20 p.m.
This course provides insight into people’s habits, why they manage us and how to manage them with a special emphasis on addiction. More than ever, addictions are in the news, affecting our lives and the lives of everyone around us. Family and friends, as well as individuals, struggle to understand and help. Kent Murphey will lead the class in helping to understand the biological and psychological mechanisms of addictions, survey the different therapeutic approaches and explore the ways family and friends can help, rather than hurt, the addicts in their lives.

Popular BULLI teacher Dr. Kent Murphey returns to lead this class on an important topic in today’s society. Murphey has been an associate pastor at First Baptist Church of Gainesville for 25 years, has a degree in zoology, a Master of Divinity and a Doctor of Ministry. In addition, he has training in accounting, law, mediation and counseling. His teaching style encourages student participation through discussion and questions.

TUESDAY

THE POWER OF JANE AUSTEN
Six sessions – Cost $40
11 a.m.-12:20 p.m.
Why is Jane Austen so relevant after more than 200 years? Using video clips and other media, this course will review seven of Austen’s novels and examine their popularity today. The novels include Sense and Sensibility, Pride and Prejudice, Mansfield Park, Emma, Northanger Abbey, Persuasion and Lady Susan. It is not necessary to have read any of Austen’s works before taking the class.

Popular teacher Dorothy Carillo returns for this BULLI literature course. Carillo has developed several courses on literature and popular culture, which she has presented at Olli-Emory and Dekalb County Senior Citizens. She is a retired associate professor of social work having served on the faculty of both the University of Georgia and Georgia State University.
LOCAL HISTORY: WHY IT MATTERS FOR THE FUTURE

Five sessions – Cost $40
12:30-1:50 p.m.

Why do some communities decay while others thrive? What is the secret to the prosperity and strong future of Gainesville and Hall County? A large part of the answer lies in the past. We’ll hear from Johnny Vardeman, Abit Massey, Debbie Thompson, Sommer Stockton, Jim Mathis and Jerry Ward, who are well-acquainted with our local history and the strong personalities, industries and institutions that have and continue to shape us.

Dr. Bill Coates is hosting this class.

THE PRICE OF REFUGE: GLOBAL REFUGEE CRISIS

Six sessions – Cost $40
3:30-4:50 p.m.

This course will cover the global refugee crises while addressing international law/protocol and the perspectives of refugees, host countries and smugglers. Participants will work with undergraduate students enrolled in Honors 220 to create a refugee simulation that will be held for university and community members.

Dr. Heather Hollimon is a Brenau professor who teaches history, political science and gender studies. She has a commitment to social justice and empowering students to take on challenging social and political issues, both locally and globally.

WEDNESDAY

FORGIVENESS IN LITERATURE

Six sessions – Cost $40
9:30-10:50 a.m.

Gandhi said, “The weak can never forgive. Forgiveness is an attribute of the strong.” We all know the importance of forgiveness, but do we know how to forgive? In this course, we’ll explore the ways in which forgiveness is treated in literature through the ages, with the goal of understanding its power. Using a variety of literary works from Sophocles to Jodi Picoult, we’ll see how forgiveness has many dimensions, including social, personal and spiritual. We’ll tackle some hard questions: Are there acts that are unforgivable? Can we forgive without forgetting? How can forgiveness work with accountability? During our journey, we’ll encounter plays, poems, essays, novels and short stories. You won’t have to do much reading to get a lot out of the course. Bring a curious mind and an open heart, and you will learn about literature, the human condition and maybe a little something about yourself.

Dr. Bill Coates holds a Ph.D. in American Literature from the University of South Carolina. Denise Lee holds a B.A. and an M.A. in English and has completed coursework for a doctorate in adult education. Stanley Longman, playwright and theatre historian, is a Professor Emeritus and former head of the Department of Theatre and Film Studies at the University of Georgia.

ORIGINS OF ROCK ’N’ ROLL PART 4

Six sessions – Cost $40
11 a.m.-12:20 p.m.

We will look at the continuing influx of groups from the United Kingdom and how the rock ’n’ roll scene in the U.S. reacted. We will explore the growth of Motown and R&B. The Beach Boys, The Rolling Stones, James Brown, The Kinks, The Monkees and many others face the spotlight. Psychedelia begins to surface, and soul and funk start to swell.

Tom Dell has played rock ’n’ roll, rhythm and blues, and some country since 1957 in dives and clubs on the East Coast and Atlanta. He served in the Marines and graduated from Georgia State University. He teaches at OLLI at Emory University and at the Central DeKalb Senior Center. He owned a stereo store in the 1970s and spent 30 years in the telecommunications industry.

RELIEF PRINTMAKING

Six sessions – Cost $40
12:30-1:50 p.m.

In this course, participants will learn the techniques and history of various kinds of relief printmaking. The first class will be dedicated to the history of printmaking as it relates to relief printing and the artists who made the art important. Participants will be introduced to the works, processes and concepts of current printmakers. Classes are hands-on with participants creating a small linoleum block print and a medium-scale woodblock print. Carving tools will be required (a supply list will be provided for participants at the first class).

Claudia Wilburn is an associate professor of art and design at Brenau University. She holds a Master of Fine Arts and is currently teaching a Plein-air Special Topics class at Brenau.

CHINESE CULTURE AND HISTORY: A BRIEF JOURNEY

Four sessions – Cost $40
2-3:20 p.m., April 9, 16, 23 & 30

China, the world’s oldest continuously existing civilization, has much to offer as to richness of culture and history. Join us for a four-week class taught by visiting professors from Anhui Normal University, highlighting their areas of expertise and interests. More details will be forthcoming, but register now to save your spot in this culturally enriching class.

THURSDAY

OUR COURT AND JUSTICE SYSTEM: THE HOW AND WHAT

Six sessions – Cost $40
11 a.m.-12:20 p.m.

John Girardeau, retired judge of the Hall County Superior Court, leads discussion as he and others explain the structure, jurisdiction and workings of our state and federal courts. We know that they are necessary to assure that we have an orderly society, but how do they work? What’s the difference in our federal and state courts?
I witnessed this same visionary entrepreneur attribute in one of BULLI’s founding members, Brenda Layne. Brenda was also a founding member and leader of the BULLI Hiking Club. Her impact on BULLI and BULLI members through the years has been tremendously influential. Current Hiking Club members recently surprised Brenda with a 90th birthday celebration following their Silver Anniversary Hike on the Brenau University historic campus.

Brenda and her founding BULLI colleagues were very much like first-generation cathedral builders. They were visionaries, stirred by an intellectual curiosity and a common passion for learning. They laid the foundation of BULLI and subsequent members contributed to the mission and transformational vision of BULLI by continuing to develop quality lifelong learning opportunities for adults in Greater Hall County.

Through the years, BULLI has adapted to changing times while remaining true to its original mission and vision. You have probably noticed recent changes to the BULLI website to improve our member online experience. You will also notice that the length of BULLI classes, beginning with the spring term, are now eighty minutes to coincide with the Brenau academic class schedule and make it easier to schedule classroom space.

Soon, we will be entering into a strategic planning process for BULLI to map out how we move forward the BULLI vision of our founders. We will remain true to our mission, adapting to the times and in preparation for the next generation BULLI member. Just like cathedral builders carried the vision from one generation to the next, BULLI is the same.

If severe weather is predicted, you will need to watch the news or listen to the radio for school closings. BULLI does not follow Brenau University closings.

Since we have students coming from a number of outlying areas, BULLI classes are canceled when Hall County Schools are closed.

Please watch the local news stations for the latest info.
MONDAY

FAMOUS GEORGIA AUTHORS

Five sessions – Cost $40
9:30-10:50 a.m.
March 30, April 6, 13, 20 & 27

This course is similar to a Whitman’s Sampler, which allows you lots of tastes of chocolate. Except this is better because it’s literature! The South has a lot to sample: Sidney Lanier, Carson McCullers, Rick Bragg, Alice Walker, Celestine Sibley, Ferrol Sams, Flannery O’Connor, Olive Ann Burns, Pat Conroy and our current favorite, Barbara Brown Taylor. There will also be a few surprises, of course. If you love literature, you’ll love what the South, and specifically Georgia, has to offer. Come sample! If you’d like, you can get started with O’Connor’s “Revelation,” Walker’s “Everyday Use” and Sams’ “Be Still and Know.”

Dr. Bill Coates holds a Ph.D. in American literature from the University of South Carolina.

TUESDAY

SPRING HARVEST: COOKING AT WIMBERLY’S ROOTS

Six sessions – Cost $40
11 a.m.-12:20 p.m.

You keep asking, and we deliver! Chef John Huff of Wimberly’s Roots in Winder, Georgia, continues to inspire us with delicious original recipes that incorporate fresh-picked seasonal produce from their own organic garden. These, combined with other ingredients, will be transformed into delectable meals to be enjoyed as lunch as each session winds down. Wimberly’s Roots is an interactive teaching kitchen where participants learn professional cooking techniques and recipe ideas from Chef Huff that will benefit them in their home kitchens. No prerequisite required. Supply fee: $30 NOTE: Each class is limited to 16 participants. Specify Tuesday or Thursday class on your registration form.

Chef John Huff is back again to teach this very popular topic in Winder. Huff is a Winder native who received a health and exercise science degree from Furman University. He then attended Johnson and Wales University, finishing in the top of his culinary arts graduating class. After recently teaching culinary at Sims Academy and Lanier Technical College, he now shares his culinary and nutrition passion with his community.

WEDNESDAY

CREATING YOUR WORK OF FICTION

Six Sessions – Cost $40
11 a.m.-12:20 p.m.

Students will tap into their own imagination and life experiences to create an original work of fiction. The instructor will prompt steps in the writing process with discussions on the genesis of ideas and the basic tools of fiction: character, conflict, crisis, climactic moment and resolution. Students should be willing to share their writings in various developmental stages as they push for the clarity of a finished product. A laptop computer will be helpful, but a composition notebook and pen will work equally well.

G. Richard Hoard is the author of three works of fiction, and his nonfiction book “Alone among the Living” was named the autumn 2017 Georgia Reads selection. Hoard is also a columnist with Main Street Newspapers and a recipient of several awards from the Georgia Press Association. His hobby is performing in community theater and providing color commentary for high school football broadcasts. He graduated from the University of Georgia with an ABJ in Broadcast Journalism and from Asbury Theological Seminary with a Master of Divinity. He has taught high school English courses and college speech communication courses as well as writing courses.

FORENSIC SCIENCE IN THE REAL WORLD

Six sessions – Cost $40
2-3:20 p.m.

Do TV shows like CSI get it right? What really goes on when a crime scene is processed? What happens when the weather is a factor? What does Alexa know? How do criminal attorneys bridge a connection between forensic science and law? This course will help solve those mysteries and more. Our presenters include crime scene investigator Sgt. Josh Cox from the Braselton Police Department; University of North Georgia assistant professor Michael Tuvlin, who will reconstruct a crime scene with bloodstain pattern analysis; certified forensic meteorologist Pam Know; UNG assistant professor Dr. Douglas Orr, who will tell us about digital forensics including cyber security, cyber crime and the Department of Homeland Security; a representative from the GBI Crime Lab; and a criminal attorney who will focus on the legal aspects of forensic science in the courtroom.

Facilitated by BULLI member Peg Sheffield.

THURSDAY

SPRING HARVEST: COOKING AT WIMBERLY’S ROOTS

Six sessions – Cost $40
11 a.m.-12:20 p.m.

You keep asking, and we deliver! No prerequisite required. Supply fee: $30

NOTE: Each class is limited to 16 participants. Specify Tuesday or Thursday class on your registration form.

THE CIVIL WAR IN GEORGIA

Six sessions – Cost $40
12:30-1:50 p.m.

This course will examine the Civil War in Georgia, including the battle of Chickamauga, Sherman’s Atlanta Campaign and Sherman’s March to the Sea. In addition, we’ll examine the last year of the war in Georgia (1865), and do a session on Civil War music on the last day.

Robert C. Jones served as president of the Kennesaw Historical Society for 21 years and was a member of the executive board of the Kennesaw Museum Foundation. Jones has written more than 45 books on historical topics. In 2018, he was awarded the Women in American History medal from the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution.
