2021-2022 REMOTE LECTURE SERIES PRESENTS

THE HISPANIC EXPERIENCE IN HALL COUNTY

7 p.m. Tuesday, Aug. 24
Free and Open to the Public

Arturo Corso, founder of The International Law Center in Washington, D.C., provides insight into the Hispanic experience in Hall County. Does our Hispanic community have adequate access to education, jobs, health services and affordable housing? Do they have an equitable pathway to citizenship? How do Hispanic small businesses improve the quality of life in Northeast Georgia? Corso is a practicing attorney at law in Northeast Georgia and founder of The Corso Law Center with offices in Atlanta and Gainesville.
